FACILITIES

Watsco Center

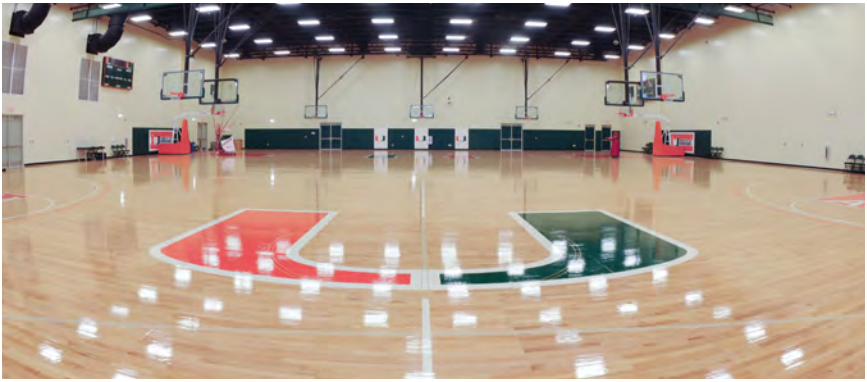
The Watsco Center is a 200,000 square foot, 7,972-seat arena that is home to the University of Miami men's and women's basketball teams. It was called the BankUnited Center from 2005-16 and the UM Convocation Center from 2003-05.

Watsco, Inc., based in Miami, is traded on the NYSE and is the largest distributor of air conditioning, heating and refrigeration products, with annual sales approaching $5 billion, 6,000 employees and over 600 locations throughout North America. Watsco has provided funding to the University since the 1990s through its 'Watsco Kids' program, providing children in the community free access to performance arts, sports and other events at the University.

The Canes opened the arena Jan. 4, 2003, with an overtime win over North Carolina. Since then, Miami has won the ACC regular-season championship in the building and hosted NCAA women's basketball tournament games.

Since its opening, the arena has hosted a number of memorable events and sold-out shows, including Coldplay, DaBaby, Drake, The Fray, Green Day, Kodak Black, John Mayer and Lil Baby. It has also served as the setting for televised events and award shows such as the 2004 Presidential Debates, All Elite Wrestling, Billboard's Latin Music Awards, Premio Lo Nuestro, Premios Juventud, The X Factor and Unplugged featuring Ricky Martin and Thalia.

The venue has welcomed world-renowned figures and politicians, including His Holiness the Dalai Lama, former United States Presidents Bill Clinton and Barack Obama, former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, former Vice President Joe Biden and late Senator John McCain.



Fieldhouse

The 29,000-square foot on-campus practice facility that is conveniently located adjacent to the Watsco Center opened in March of 2009. The facility houses a pair of full-sized basketball courts with 14 baskets, as well as a multi-purpose room to host a variety of events. Miami basketball players have access to the secure facility 24 hours per day, allowing the Hurricanes court time at any time all year.

The Hurricanes use the facility for both conditioning and practice sessions, as well as for individual workouts and pick-up games. The Fieldhouse was also honored for its sustainability components, earning the LEED Gold designation, established by the U.S. Green Building Council & verified by the Green Building Certification Institute.

EXECUTIVE STAFF

DAN RADAKOVICH

VP / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
INDIANA (PA), 1980

Dan Radakovich was named the 14th Director of Athletics in University of Miami history on December 8, 2021, returning to his graduate school alma mater as one of the nation's most decorated and successful college athletics administrators.

Radakovich, who most recently served as Director of Athletics at Clemson for nine years, launched his career at UM in 1983 as the Hurricanes' athletic business manager, an experience which charted a course that has now spanned seven schools and 30-plus years as a visionary leader in all aspects of college athletics.

In his first 18 months in Coral Gables, Radakovich has worked with campus leaders to chart an ambitious course for Miami Athletics with respect to facilities, sport sponsorship, fundraising and staff development. He hired three new head coaches (baseball, golf, rowing) and extended the contracts of six others. He has worked closely with football head coach Mario Cristobal to ramp up recruiting, evaluation, sports science and creative resources. Miami has announced plans to build a new football operations center, the on-campus "forever" home for Hurricanes football, a towering structure that will raise the student-athlete experience for all sports. UM recently opened the Susan and Stephen Symons Basketball Training Center and The Ruiz Family Baseball Strength & Conditioning Center.

This past year, Miami's men's basketball team reached its first-ever Final Four, while the women's basketball team advanced to the first Elite Eight in school history. UM also posted its highest Learfield Directors' Cup finish since 2016. Miami was one of seven schools – and the only ACC school – to have players drafted in the 2023 NFL, NBA, WNBA and MLB Drafts. In 2021-22, Miami was one of just two schools (along with North Carolina) to have its football team qualify for a bowl game, its men's basketball team reach the Sweet 16 and its baseball team host a regional.

Miami's most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate was 93 percent, matching the school record set in 2012. UM student-athletes posted a Spring 2023 grade point average of 3.17, the school's highest non-COVID semester ever. Miami also captured the 2022 NCAA Team Works Community Service competition with 100 percent participation from its student-athletes.

Miami Athletic Development raised more than $26 million this past fiscal year, an increase of 36 percent over the previous year, and increased its total number of donors by more than 8,000.

Radakovich is the immediate past President of LEAD1, which represents athletic directors at the Division I level. He was named 2017 SportsBusiness Journal Athletic Director of the Year after being a finalist in 2015. In 2014, Radakovich was one of 13 people, including one of only five FBS Directors of Athletics, to be named to first College Football Playoff committee.

At Clemson, Radakovich oversaw the most successful stretch in Tigers football history as the program won two national championships (2016, 2018), six ACC titles and made six College Football Playoff appearances.

Clemson set a school record in the NCAA's most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report, posting a 95 percent score, which also tied for first in the ACC amongst public schools. Eight Tigers programs earned perfect scores. Clemson student-athletes recorded nine semesters with a 3.0 GPA or higher, including a record 3.57 GPA in the spring of 2020. Radakovich guided the department successfully throughout the pandemic, helping Clemson to reopen athletic operations, including safely hosting 112,367 fans at Memorial Stadium in 2020, third most in the nation.

In 2020-21, Clemson had its best finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2007, finishing No. 36. Highlighting the athletic year, the football program claimed the ACC title and appeared in the College Football Playoff, the men's soccer program claimed the 2020 ACC championship, and the women's soccer program advanced to the Elite Eight. Additionally, Radakovich oversaw the development of the softball program at Clemson, which officially began in the spring of 2020. That program earned the ACC regular-season championship in 2021 and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament. Clemson also made NCAA appearances in men's basketball, indoor and outdoor track & field and men's and women's golf.

During Radakovich's tenure, IPTAY, the school's fundraising arm, saw significant increases in contributions and he was instrumental along with the IPTAY Board of Directors in the Cornerstone Partner Program, which together has helped fund numerous investments in infrastructure and the student-athlete experience.

During the 2018-19 school year, Clemson won its second football national championship in three years, defeating Alabama 44-16. During the 2017-18 school year, Clemson became the first school in history to reach the College Football Playoff, advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and host a baseball regional in the same season.

West Florida, 2005-10

Jessie Ivey joined the Miami women's basketball coaching staff as associate head coach in April of 2024, joining head coach Tricia Cullop after four dominant seasons at the University of Toledo as associate head coach.

Ivey brings in a decade and a half of experience in the coaching world, which also includes time as a head coach.

Ivey was an integral member of the staff at Toledo. With the Rockets she served as the team's defensive coordinator and lead coach of the guards, while assisting in recruiting, academic support and opponent scouting.

While at Toledo, the Rockets won three Mid-American Conference (MAC) regular season titles and one MAC tournament title. The dominant tenure in Toledo featured a 95-25 overall record. Ivey and the Rockets overwhelmed MAC opposition, going 60-16. The Rockets won 14-straight games in Ivey's final season at Toledo, just a few games short of a 17-game winning streak tallied the year prior. Toledo forged one of the best home-court advantages in the nation, going 51-10 from 2020-21 through 2023-24, while capping the 2023-24 regular season with a showing of 6,238 fans.

The Rockets went 28-6 in Ivey's final season at Toledo, turning in a league-best 17-1 record and 15-1 mark at home. Toledo played into the final days of March, coming up just one-possession shy of a trip to the Women's Basketball Invitational Tournament Semifinals after defeating Cleveland State and St. John's in the first two rounds. The Rockets paced the MAC in nine statistical categories last season, including assist/turnover ratio, assists/game, free throw percentage, free throws made per game, scoring defense, scoring margin, scoring offense, turnovers per game and winning percentage.

Ivey brings valued experience as a head coach, having led Division II Tiffin University for two seasons. Ivey helped revitalize the program, shown in a number of program "firsts". In 2019-20, Tiffin earned its first trip to the league tournament since the 2012 season, using an upset of No. 17 Kentucky Wesleyan to clinch a spot in the tournament. It was the program's first-ever win against a nationally-ranked team.

The Dragons set program records for team rebounds with 1,112, while the team logged the most offensive boards per game in the conference. Aarion Nichols was named second team all-league as one of the most all-round players in the league.

Ivey's first year at the helm saw the Dragons increase their scoring output from 58.9 points per game to 70.8 per contest. TU set seven single-season school records as well as the single-game team scoring record with an 108-point output. Tiffin tallied single season records for field goals (731), points per game (70.8), total points (1,983), rebounds (1,045) and field goal percentage (41.2 percent).

After High School, the Jay, Fla., native stayed near her hometown for nearly a decade, spending 2005-16 as a student-athlete, graduate assistant coach and assistant coach at DII powerhouse West Florida.

Ivey's first year as an assistant coach was in 2012 after two campaigns as a graduate assistant. The Argos won the 2014 Gulf South Conference (GSC) title and made two NCAA Division II Tournament appearances during her time. UWF went 20-9 in 2014-15 and advanced all the way to the NCAA regional semifinals.

The UWF double-alumnae had a big part in the recruiting and development of big-time performers. Ivey aided in the growth of the GSC Player of the Year, two GSC Freshman of the Year honorees, an all-region pick, two 1,000-point performers and 10 All-Gulf South Selections. UWF knocked off nine top-25 programs during her time in Pensacola.

Page not only brings experience on the coaching ranks with a highly-successful Toledo program but from her extensive professional playing career that has taken her throughout the world.

In Page's six years at Toledo, the Rockets went 133-58 overall and 78-34 in the Mid American Conference (MAC), going on to win three MAC Regular Season Championships and another conference tournament crown.

Page worked in all areas of the Toledo program, while focusing heavily on the post position. She also contributed in a big way in academic support and opponent scouting, earning a promotion to recruiting coordinator in April of 2023.

Toledo forged one of the best home-court advantages in the MAC, mid-major hoops and throughout the nation. In her final season at Toledo, the Rockets went 28-6 overall, 17-1 in league play and 15-1 at home. UT defeated Cleveland State and St. John's in the first two rounds of the WBIT, leading the conference in nine statistical categories

The 2022-23 season was the second-straight year the Rockets reached 29 wins, tying the program record for wins in a single season. Among those wins were victories against nationally-ranked Michigan and five-seeded Iowa State in the NCAA Tournament. The Rockets got it done in the classroom as well, notching a program-record 3.687 team grade point average, bringing Toledo to 24-straight semesters of at least a 3.0 GPA. Forward Jessica Cook came up big for Toledo, being named to the MAC All-Tournament Team as a sophomore.

Page wrapped up the 2022-23 season by participating in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association *(WBCA) Inaugural Next Generation Institute. The following month she was tabbed co-head coach of the U20 Serbian National Team, coaching in the 2023 FIBA U20 European Championships.

Toledo was one of 10 programs to reach 29 wins in the 2021-22 season, with dominant rebounding adding to Toledo's success. The Rockets paced the MAC in rebounding margin (+8.63) and defensive rebounds per game (29.57). Page followed the record-setting season by being named an assistant coach of the U20 Serbian National Team in the summer of 2022.

Page's first year with Toledo was filled with team and individual success as the Rockets broke the 20-win marker and tallied an 11-7 record in conference play. Toledo played to its seventh Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) under head coach Tricia Cullop, while leading the league in scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, three-point field goal percentage defense and fewest three-pointers permitted per game.

Page earned her coaching start at Colorado Premier Basketball Club, working with the U-13, U-14 and U-15 squads alongside former NBA player Keith Van Horn. A year prior to joining Toledo she helped with the coordination and communication of recruiting operations for the U-17 team.

An imposing post player, Page was a four-year member of the Nebraska women's basketball team, helping the Cornhuskers to two NCAA Championship appearances. She finished as one of three players in program history to eclipse 200-career blocks before being picked up by the Connecticut Sun in 2008.

From there she began a decade-long professional playing career that took her all throughout the international side of the game. After earning her Serbian citizenship in 2015, Page qualified for the 2016 Olympics, taking home bronze in Rio de Janeiro.

1975-77

Shula Feuer took over the head coaching job at Miami prior to the 1975-76 season. In two years with the Canes, Feuer posted a 16-24 mark with a third-place finish in the FAIAW in 1976-77.

In 2018, Feuer was honored with the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Trailblazer Award for her commitment to women's basketball. Feuer was recognized as one of the founding members of the Women's Basketball League, the predecessor to the current WNBA.

ISABELLA HUTCHINSON
1977-78

Isabella Hutchison could easily be called the founder of the University of Miami women's athletics program. She came to the University of Miami in 1965 with the mandate of beginning a women's intramural sports program. From that beginning, Hutchison went on to coach numerous sports, including the Miami women's basketball team in 1977-78.

Outside of Miami, Hutchison is well known in the cause of furthering women's athletics. She was not only President of the Florida Association of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics from 1977-79, but also Chairperson of many AIAW and NCAA committees such as awards and officiating.

Following her time at Miami, Hutchison went on to serve as Associate Athletic Director for Women's Sports at Indiana University until her retirement from collegiate athletics in 2000.

LIN DUNN
1978-87

Lin Dunn served as head coach of the Women's Basketball program from 1978-87, accumulating a 149-119 record with the Hurricanes.

During her nine seasons in Coral Gables, Dunn guided the Hurricanes to their first-ever ranking in the Associated Press Top 20 in 1985 and to their first Florida State Championship in 1981. She was the 1981 Florida Coach of the Year and served with the 1986 United States Women's Basketball Team in 1986.

Her first year saw UM finish 10-13 and place fifth in the state. The team rebounded largely in her second season, posting an 18-16 record. Dunn's impact became apparent in her third season with Miami (1980-81), as the Hurricanes forged a 24-15 record.

From there, the record-setting team made its first postseason appearance in the AIAW Region III Championship. Her 1981-82 squad followed up on its previous seasons' success with a 19-10 record, and another berth into the AIAW postseason tournament. Dunn's seventh season resulted in her top win percentage (.750) 21-7.

Dunn served as President of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in 1984-85. She was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2014.

KEN PATRICK
1987-88

Ken Patrick was named the interim head coach for the 1987-88 season. Patrick served as an assistant coach during the prior year under Lin Dunn.

Under Patrick's direction, the Canes went 14-13.

FERNE LABATI
1988-05

Ferne Labati became the head coach of Woman's basketball at the University of Miami in 1988. She has the most wins of any UM women's basketball coach and took her 2003-2004 team to the NCAA Tournament.

Highlighting her 15 seasons are nine berths in postseason play, six in the NCAA tournament and three in the WNIT. The Canes won back-to-back BIG EAST regular season and Tournament titles in 1992 and 1993, while finishing as high as No. 6 nationally. Her 1996 squad earned a share of the BIG EAST 7 division title. Labati herself was named WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1992.

Labati's record at Miami stands at 290-179 (.618) while her overall record in 26 seasons as a head coach is 426-301 (.586). Though her success on the court is impressive, what she has accomplished off the court might serve as her legacy at the University of Miami: In her 16 seasons, 40 of the 41 student-athletes that completed their eligibility at Miami have graduated.

From day one at the University of Miami, Tamara James made her mark as one of the top basketball players in program history. One of the country's most prolific players in her four collegiate seasons, James averaged 20.4 points per game and finished her career as Miami's all-time leading scorer with 2,406 points.

A standout guard at South Broward High School, James was ranked No. 14 in the nation by All-Star Girls Report in her senior season, during which she averaged 21.0 points and 11.0 rebounds per game. She was named the Florida State Player of the Year in 2002.

James was a McDonald's All-American, Fourth Team Parade All-American and Nike All-American in high school before choosing to attend the University of Miami, where she helped turn the program into one of the nation's best. She recorded one of the best freshman seasons in UM history, becoming the first freshman to lead the BIG EAST in scoring, with an average of 21.0 points per game. This total ranked her No. 12 nationally and was fourth-best in Miami history at the time. She scored double figures in 30 of 31 games played in the 2002-03 season.

Selected to the All-BIG EAST Preseason First Team, James' sophomore season continued in much the same fashion. She became the 17th Hurricane to reach 1,000 points, finishing the season ranked No. 14 in program history with 1,114. She scored a career-high 37 points in a win against Eastern Kentucky, and 22 points in 25 minutes in a win against Seton Hall. She earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors and was named BIG EAST Player of the Week twice on the season.

With Miami's move to the ACC in time for the 2004-2005 season, James became the second player in NCAA history to lead two major conferences in scoring. She led the Hurricanes in nearly every statistical category during her junior season, including field goals made (242), 3-point percentage (.328), rebounding (6.9 rpg) and minutes played (36.1 mpg), helping the Hurricanes to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In her senior season, James led the ACC in scoring with an average of 21.5 points per game and helped earn Miami a place in the 2006 WNIT. She passed UM Hall of Famer Maria Rivera's all-time scoring record when she netted 32 points against FIU. During James' career, the Hurricanes posted a 70-47 record.

James not only left UM with the most points in program history, but also as the leader in free throws made and free throws attempted, in addition to ranking in the top three all-time in nine different categories. She was the first-round draft pick of the WNBA's Washington Mystics in 2006 and has since played overseas for teams in Israel, Turkey and Spain. She was chosen as a member of the ACC Women's Basketball Legends Class of 2012.

Eighth in scoring at Miami

The first player in University of Miami program history to be drafted by a WNBA team, Octavia Blue had an illustrious career as a Hurricane. She ended her tenure at UM ranking in the top six of numerous career statistical categories, including fourth in scoring with 1,724 points, a number that still ranks eighth all-time.

A native of Deerfield Beach, Fla., Blue matriculated to Miami after a stellar prep career at nearby Nova High School, where she was a two-time team captain. She averaged double figures all four seasons, including posting 28.2 points and 15.0 rebounds per game during a dominant senior season. That year, she received first team all-state and player of the year recognition from both the Miami Herald and the Sun Sentinel. Both papers named Blue, who notched 46 points in one high school game, second team all-state after a junior season in which she logged 26.4 points and 13.0 rebounds per game.

Blue made an impact right away at Miami, leading the Hurricanes in scoring (14.5 ppg), rebounding (7.2 rpg), minutes (29.8 mpg) and blocks (20) during her freshman campaign in 1994-95. In the first game of her career, Blue notched 24 points and nine rebounds against Fairfield. She followed that with a 28-point outing versus Florida Atlantic in her second-career contest. Following the season, Blue was selected to the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team.

In 1995-96, as a sophomore, Blue garnered the first of three straight All-BIG EAST honors. Starting all 27 contests, Blue scored in double figures 24 times and led Miami in scoring (16.0 ppg) for the second straight year. She also tallied a team-best five double-doubles and paced UM in field goal percentage (.488). Blue earned the first of four career BIG EAST Player of the Week honors during a season in which Miami tied for first in the BIG EAST 7 Division.

Blue was named a Third Team All-BIG EAST selection for the second season in a row as a junior in 1996-97. The skilled forward posted 13.4 points and 5.6 rebounds per contest and totaled a career-best 37 steals during the campaign.

Saving her best for last, Blue was dominant during her senior season in 1997-98. She became the second player in program history to garner first, second or third team All-America honors, earning WBNS Third Team All-America status. A Second Team All-BIG EAST pick and a Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American, Blue led Miami in scoring for the third time (19.2 ppg) and helped the Hurricanes to their fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. Her 40 points and 16 made field goals against Florida Atlantic were then the third-highest single-game marks by a UM player and it still stands tied for fourth. After attempting just three 3-pointers in her first three seasons, Blue posted the best single-season mark in program history (.453) in her last year.

Blue started 107 of 112 games during her career and three of contests she did not start were games she missed with an ankle injury as a freshman. Entering 2017-18, she has still has six career records in the top 10 on Miami's all-time list. In 2008, Blue was both inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and tabbed as an ACC Women's Basketball Legend.

#11 MARIA RIVERA (1984-88)

1984 WBBY Freshman All-American
1988 Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American
University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame
Miami's all-time leader in field goals made
Second in scoring and steals, sixth in assists at Miami
Only Hurricane to score 40-plus points in a game multiple times

As one of the most electric scorers ever to step on the court and play at the University of Miami, Maria Rivera left her mark as a four-year standout with the Hurricanes. During her playing career from 1984-88, Rivera reached a level never before achieved at Miami and departed as the Hurricanes' record holder in several categories, including career points with 2,358.

Rivera came to Miami by way of Canovana, Puerto Rico, where, at just the age of 14, she was named the 1978 Player of the Year by the Puerto Rican Olympic Committee before going on to star on the Puerto Rican 1979 and 1983 Pan American Teams.

From day one she showed an unprecedented desire to achieve at UM. Speaking only Spanish, Rivera borrowed $2,000 dollars from a bank to enroll in an intense fast-paced English program to pass an English equivalency exam required to enroll at Miami, and just three months later she was on campus and playing for the Hurricanes.

Rivera averaged 18.7 points and 5.3 assists, leading the Hurricanes in scoring in 13-of-28 games in 1984-85, her first season at Miami. That season she showed what lay ahead on several occasions, including a school-record-setting performance against Lamar during which she hit 10-of-11 shots from the field and a 33-point outing against Florida. Following the conclusion of the regular season, she was named to the Women's Basketball Yearbook Freshman All-America Team.

The following season she stepped up her game, averaging 21.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.3 assists. Her 21.4 points per game was the second-highest single-season average in UM history and her 579 points was the third-highest ever at Miami.

Rivera's junior season was highlighted by yet another impressive scoring output, averaging 20.9 points, which ranked third all-time at UM just behind her previous season's mark. That year was full of memorable achievements, including a then-career-high 38-point game in UM's opener against Monmouth, but none were more exciting than when she surpassed former Hurricane Sylvia Wilson to become Miami's all-time leading scorer.

In her senior campaign at Miami, Rivera turned in another memorable season. Needing 29 points to break former men's basketball legend Rick Barry's UM basketball record of 2,298 points, Rivera scored 30 points in the first half of a Feb. 25 contest with UCF en route to a then-school-record 41 points to become Miami's all-time leading scorer in both men's and women's basketball.

Upon finishing her career with the Hurricanes, Rivera left as the school record-holder in 16 separate categories—including points (2,358), scoring average (21.1 ppg), steals (382) and field goals made (891) and attempted (1,931) to firmly ensure her place as one of the greatest basketball players to ever play at Miami.

1992 First Team All-BIG EAST
1992 BIG EAST Most Improved Player
University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame
ACC Women's Basketball Legend

Third in rebounding, fourth in scoring at Miami

Frances Savage is one of the best players to ever don a uniform at the University of Miami. During her four-year career from 1988-91 Savage etched her name throughout the UM record books. She left as the school's second all-time leading scorer with 2,184 points and still ranks first all-time with a career 23.2 scoring average—despite missing all but two games of the 1990-91 season.

The 12th child of a household of 13 children, the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., native averaged greater than 30 points per game during her senior season at Sunrise Piper High School and was named the Miami Herald's Broward Player of the Year in 1985 and 1987.

After drawing All-America honors as a high school standout, Savage chose to attend the University of Miami, but was forced to sit out her freshman season in 1987 while fulfilling academic requirements. Once her opportunity arose in 1988, Savage burst onto the scene, scoring 32 points in her collegiate debut versus Southwest Missouri State—the most points scored by a Miami player in her opening game. She would go on to start and score double figures in all 29 games of the 1988 season, averaging 22.4 points and 9.2 rebounds per game.

As a preseason All-America candidate, Savage's junior season picked up where the 1988 season left off, scoring double figures in all 31 games that season while leading the team in scoring (23.6 ppg), rebounding (9.5 rpg), steals (71), free throw percentage (.786) and field goal percentage (.540). In 1990, Savage opened her senior season with back-to-back 30-point outings, but was lost for the year with a torn ACL suffered in just the second game of the season.

Granted a fifth year of eligibility, in 1991, Savage returned to score 31 points in her first start against in-state rival Florida. She tied the then-school record with 41 points in Miami's win over Providence during the course of the Hurricanes' 30-game win streak.

Averaging 23.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, Savage helped lead the Hurricanes to the BIG EAST Championship title in only their first season in the conference and was named both the BIG EAST and Sports Illustrated Player of the Year, in addition to garnering Kodak/WBCA All-America honors.

At the end of her illustrious career, Savage ranked No. 10 in Division I history in scoring average (minimum 1,500 points) and her 23.2 mark stands at No. 20 all-time entering 2016-17.

Savage left Miami as one of the most decorated athletes in school history, holding nine Hurricane records, as well as finishing as the school's second all-time leading scorer. She has since been inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and to UM's Iron Arrow Society—the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the university. Savage was Miami's inaugural ACC Women's Basketball Legend, earning the distinction in 2005.

NCAA Negotiated Resolution #020161

On February 24, 2023 the NCAA Committee on Infractions and the University of Miami announced a Negotiated Resolution regarding case No. 02161.

The institution, head women's basketball coach and enforcement staff agreed that between April 7 through 13, 2022, the head coach and an assistant women's basketball coach facilitated an impermissible off-campus contact between a booster and two prospects and their parents that resulted in the booster providing the prospects with an impermissible inducement (e.g., a meal). Additionally, the head coach violated NCAA publicity legislation when she commented about the prospects to the booster and provided him information about their official visit. The head coach did not rebut the presumption of responsibility pursuant to bylaw 11.1.1.1.

The head coach served a three-game suspension and the University has been placed on one year of probation from February 24, 2023 through February 23, 2024. The women's basketball program also reduced recruiting visit opportunities and communications during the 2022-23 academic year.
